Dear Guest,

For the Yuletide season, Grand Park Kodhipparu becomes an island of light—where pathways glow, the lagoon reflects the night sky, and each moment is shaped with intention.

Inspired by the natural rhythm of the Maldives, this is a celebration designed not simply to delight—but to reconnect.

From quiet mornings by the ocean to evenings illuminated by lanterns and firelight, your days unfold with ease and meaning—leaving you feeling lighter, calmer, and more present. Your Lifestyle Host will guide each experience, thoughtfully curating your time on the island.

We wish you a joyful festive season and a radiant beginning to the year ahead.

01st
January

MERRIMENT CONTINUES...

As the new year begins, the island gently shifts into a quieter rhythm.
The celebrations soften, the light lingers, and the lagoon reflects a more peaceful pace — inviting rest, renewal, and reflection.

For those observing the Orthodox festive season, a continuation of meaningful moments awaits.

ORTHODOX FESTIVE SEASON

A time of reflection, connection, and quiet celebration.

In the spirit of the Festival of Light & Lagoon, this chapter of the festive season embraces a slower rhythm — where mornings begin with stillness, days unfold with intention, and evenings are illuminated by calm, understated moments.

Whether observing traditions or simply extending your island escape, this is a time to reconnect — with yourself, with loved ones, and with the natural beauty of Kodhipparu.

Throughout 2–7 January, a curated selection of experiences continues:

Wellness & Reflection

- Sunrise Yoga overlooking the lagoon
- Guided meditation and breathwork
- Spa rituals focused on rest and restoration

Ocean & Nature

- House reef snorkelling with marine biologist
- Gentle lagoon activities — kayak, paddle, swim

Creative & Cultural

- Island craft workshops
- Henna art and local traditions
- Maldivian storytelling sessions

Each experience is designed to complement a slower, more intentional pace.
